On-Track/Off-Track – additional way to make up hours

Students needing to make up hours to get back “on-track” may do so after school by attending Academic Zone. Academic Zone is hosted by Math Fellows and provides a quiet place for students to complete homework or other class assignments and have access to computers. Students who do classwork or homework can earn one hour of makeup time.

Academic Zone is on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays after school, 3:15-4:15 pm, in the Library. In addition, on Mondays & Thursdays, students from East and GW will be present during Academic Zone to provide assistance to students in all subjects.

Sign-up to volunteer selling tickets before the event or help during the event, Oct. 29th, 3:15-5:00.
